We Create Leaders In

Culinary Management

2025/26

Leading Careers and WORLDCHEFS approved Diplomas, Bachelor and MBA Degrees in Baking & Pastry and Culinary Arts Business

Leading in Culinary Management Education

We create culinary champions and leaders of everything that happens in the culinary sector. Our range of top kitchen and various food and beverage outlets on campus provide our future culinary leaders with an excellent holistic platform to excel. All students will experience our leading culinary team, guest Master Chefs and excellent internship opportunities.

Employers now require general culinary skills, creative management drive and a degree recognition allowing graduates to move and work in many different employment locations globally. To ensure our students international future we award the UK number 1 rank (2025 Guardian ranking) culinary degree from Ulster University.

A key feature of our Swiss European Culinary Institute is our strong partnership with WACS, World Association of Chefs Societies, which professionally approves all culinary courses. WACS represents millions of chefs worldwide, and combined with the HTMi graduate employer platform provides HTMi future culinary leaders with a world-class employer and professional community.
